To Whom it May Concern,

The Korea Society and the Southeast U.S. Korean Chamber of Commerce would like to invite you to our upcoming conference on July 14, 2022, at The Commerce Club Atlanta. We would like to ask you to help us participate and join us to talk about the mutually beneficial aspects of the U.S.-Korea relationship, including the importance of the future-oriented economic partnership.

It is time to walk the talk, and we need our corporate panel to discuss how economic ties are going to help shape Korean companies doing business in the United States, and its importance for the next level of economic development and prosperity.

This conference is an inaugural, strategic initiative of the Society that aims to highlight the diplomatic, security and economic aspects of the multifaceted, dynamic U.S.-Korea relationship. It will be composed of a keynote speech, two morning panels, a luncheon, and closing reception. The purpose is to connect the local Atlanta and the wider Southeast U.S. audience with influential speakers to explore a series of salient topics related to challenges and opportunities concerning the future direction of the bilateral relationship.

We are attaching a provisional agenda with speakers for your information. The Morning Panel titled, "A Future-Oriented U.S.-Korea Relationship," will explore the core diplomatic and security trends driving the U.S.-Korea relationship, and rising challenges in a competitive geopolitical landscape. The Late Morning Panel titled, "New Comprehensive Economic Partnership," will consist of a discussion, exploring the rising wave of Korean corporate investment in the Southeast and the broader economic bilateral relationship.

The board of the Korea Society and the Southeast U.S. Korean Chamber of Commerce will appreciate your consideration in joining us. We believe that your engagement in this conference would be important to provide a perspective on the contemporary challenges facing the U.S.-Korea alliance on business investments and economic development. I would be glad to follow up with any further information which could aid your decision, and we look forward to discussing this opportunity further. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jae Kim
